-1-

God has a Kingdom which He doth prepare,
For His saints who love Him and trust His Word;
Will you in the wedding garment be there?
By grace and by faith strive to please the Lord.

-Refrain-

The Master calleth: Oh, come and dine!
You may feast at His table in the Kingdom;
To the marriage supper of the Lamb,
You are invited, do not decline.

The way may be rough, and the thistles much,
But we have the promise: He will lead us;
While wretched, naked, poor, we felt His touch;
In newness of life He has walked with us.

-3-

So strive now to be among the Vanguard,
In number they are twenty-four thousand;
Obedience to God's Rod is your safeguard,
O come, and rejoice with the pilgrim band!
